WHERE: AU79 ON COLORADO BLVD. ACROSS THE STREET FROM PCC

Hey Alphas! Help us raise money for this semester's scholarships by participating in our AU79 March fundraiser. For the month of March, whenever you purchase a drink from AU79, you could get 0.5 hours. The maximum for each AGS member will be 3.5 hours, which is equivalent to purchasing 7 drinks! ☺ AU79 is also offering a special AGS drink called "Hazelnut Black Tea." To show AU79 our support for their business and the AGS spirit, we will be giving out an extra 0.5 hours for those members who have purchased a minimum of 3 AGS "Hazelnut Black Tea" drinks! So just by getting some yummy drinks, you could earn up to 4 AGS hours and also help us raise money for scholarships that you could win at the end of the semester!

ALPHA GAMMA SIGMA 2015-2016 EXECUTIVE BOARD APPLICATION ANNOUNCEMENT

“Add to good character, knowledge and judgment.”

Greetings Alphas!

It is our honor to have served alongside another amazing batch of dedicated AGS members. All of us have come to warmly embrace our positions, its responsibilities, the committees we hold, and this honor society as a whole; however, our roles are not permanent. We know that change is necessary to accommodate for bigger and better opportunities. Thus, we are proud to announce that we are opening board position applications to serve in the next academic year.

The following elected positions are open:

- President
- Internal Vice President
- External Vice President
- Recording Secretary
- Corresponding Secretary
- Treasurer
- Activities Coordinator
- Fundraising Coordinator
- Marketing Director
- Publicity Art Director
- Inter-Club Council Representative
- Technology Coordinator
- Assistant Technology Coordinator

In order to run for President, applicant must be part of the current board to qualify.

Every board position is a one year commitment starting Fall 2015 until Spring 2016. It is a great endeavor to hold a leadership position, more so for an entire year, but rest assured that every part of it is truly fulfilling. This is a great opportunity to challenge yourself, to enhance your skills in a leadership role, and to give back to the PCC community.

Applications are available starting March 17, 2015 on the AGS website under AGS Document. Deadline for board applications is on March 30, 2015, Monday. Please submit them in a manila envelope during the Planning Meeting or in the AGS Mailbox inside the Office of Student Life in the CC Bldg.

AGS board elections will be held during General Meeting on Thursday, April 2nd, 2015 The new executive board will be announced during the Spring Banquet “Noir” on Saturday, April 11th, 2015.

We look forward to receiving your applications.

With our highest regards,

AGS 2014-2015 Executive Board

Inside the PENTHOUSE of an apartment building in downtown LA, there lived a dinosaur named Owen- who loved to jump on his bouncy bed. Early Thursday morning, when Owen was still half asleep, he began a game of pouncing from his bed to the couch. Unfortunately, he fell off the bed and hit his head extremely hard, so hard that it left a huge pimple on his forehead. To alleviate his headache, he took a dose of LSD. During this hallucinatory state, Owen claims to have dreamt of a comet that would destroy the world and all of his relatives that inhabited it. Owen was concerned and had no idea what to do. His sidekick, Dr. Derek, appeared in the room before him. Dr. Derek and Owen knew they must save their friends and loved ones! They both got into Dr. Derek's Aston Martin automobile and drove to the safe land of Pasadena City College. As they played in the mirror pools, they fought for 2 whole hours about the evolution of Earth. BEFORE THEIR EYES, THE CAR SUDDENLY EVOLVED INTO A FLYING UNICORN - one with a majestic pink mane and sparkly blue eyes. "What a peculiar unicorn," Owen thought. The pretty unicorn had a scar across its face and instead of a soft neigh of the usual breed of mythical creature, it had a ROAR! MUCH LIKE KATY PERRY, BUT BETTER. Then out of nowhere, Miley Cyrus came in like a "Wrecking Ball." She was wreaking havoc all over the NEW anthropology lab; she stuck gum underneath every single desk and chair in the room. Good thing Dr. Derek and his army of honor students were in the vicinity! TO THE RESCUE! Dr. Derek realized that he was not a sidekick, but a savior to people that never saw change, a legend to those who have never heard of his name. He knew exactly what he was meant to do. He created and introduced a revolutionary drug, named "MILNE," that gave access to multiple undiscovered areas of the brain. He became a legend that found potential in PCC and showed students the true colors of what it means to be honor students. Feeling relieved, Owen, the dinosaur looked up and counted the stars and followed the path. It was at this time that Owen knew he was on LSD; since he knows there is too much smog in LA to see anything in the sky. Realizing this, the dinosaur finally got his senses back and woke up from this hallucinatory dream. No comets, no awesome sidekick Dr. Derek, no Aston Martin, no popstars, and no superdrug "MILNE". Half asleep, Owen wakes up only to find Ray Charles, in his penthouse, setting out poker cards to Beethoven, Ron Swanson, Paul Smecker and an extra hand for himself. THE DINOSAUR WAS HUSTLED BY RAY CHARLES, AND HE LOST ALL OF HIS MONEY, HIS GIRLFRIEND, AND HIS CAR. RAY CHARLES FELT SORRY FOR OWEN, AND OFFERED HIM A YEAR SUPPLY OF MOONSHINE. As the day came to an end, Owen was suddenly enthralled by an idea. It consumed him entirely, and he could not escape the thought. He really, really wanted to watch that burlesque butt-twerking to Beethoven video for the millionth time. But more pressing things had his priority. *All these dreams were because he had to be at the AGS meeting at noon to hear Dr. Milne speak about the benefits of the Honor Program, and had JUST ENOUGH TIME TO TAKE THE BUS TO PCC
